Publication Focus

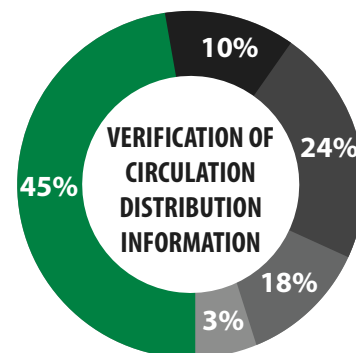

Extraction Magazine is the trusted provider of botanical extraction news, ever-changing politics, cool gadgets and technologies, and methods for producing safe, ethical, and compliant formulations.

With an emphasis on cannabis extraction and an infusion of culture, we pride ourselves on creating a relevant, educational, and yet fun to read, digital and print news source that reaches the globally growing number of people turning to cannabis for work, fellowship, insight, healing, relaxation, or just an overall restoration of balance.
